B this arrangement persons visiting Memphis will no longer be compelled to lay over all night at the Junction, but go through to their destination without any stoppage, save the few moments required to change cars. Memphis to this point.

GREAT REDUCTION .- We, this week, impart information to our readers that is encouraging to no little degree. By arrangements recently entered into by the Mississippi Central, New Orleans, Jackson and Great Northern, and the Memphis and stoves, tin and sheet-iron ware, cutlery, hard-Charleston railroads, frieghts on cotton over | ware, etc. those roads has been greatly reduced. Formerly, the price per bale from this point to New Orleans was $13 75, to Memphis, $5 00; now it only costs $6 50 per bale to ship from Bolivar to New Orleans, and $2 50 to Memphis. This great reduction in cotton freights will have its desired effect in more than one way. Few persons will hereafter ship any cotton north. Only two dollars and a half per bale to Memphis. Think of that and send your cotton there.

THE PROSPECT.-While we hear of most disparaging accounts from many districts in the cotton growing lands to the south, east and west of us, as concerns the crop now | Church, Memphis, died in that city on the ripening, it affords us pleasure to announce | 17th inst. the fact that this county will be far more fa- We learn from the Memphis Appeal of the vorably blessed with a heavy yield of the 18th, that the cholera has been declared an fleecy king than was anticipated several epidemic in that city. weeks ago. Only one thing can check the prospect now, and that is an early frost. If planters are favored with mild Fall weather, visited by drenching rains. an immense amount of cotton will be baled in this county. This favorable turn affairs have taken, in conjunction with the abundant yield of early corn, will contribute no little towards the comfort and prosperity of our citizens, leading a hopeful tone to business generally

Coming. - One day last week a delegation of the chivalry of Tippah county, Miss., visited our town for the purpose of looking into affairs "tournamental," and being well pleased with what they heard and saw gave us to understand that they might be "counted in" for numerous tilts. We also hear that Mr. Walker, of Aberdeen, and Finley, of Marshall, are to enter as knights at the Bolivar tournament. Come on, gentlemen, there is room for all, and, as the old saying goes : "more the merrier."

Novelty .- Among the many articles se lected in the eastern cities by an experienced merchant for the store of Fleming & Ussery, is a lot of the latest style of " patent calves." We are not advised as to who will preside over this delicate branch of the fashionable and furnishing department of the store, but assure our readers, and all interested, that " he'll be a knowing one," always giving the best "fits" imaginable! Who'll go for 'em?
